What might they be feeling, experiencing, perceiving, learning?

What does this person need?

What might be happening for this person with regard to the questions of "who's got me?" and "who gets me?"

Separation and loss

Relational family engagement

The attachment relationship and emotional development

It starts with us

7

What more do you want to understand about yourself with regard to separation, loss, and the emotions that accompany those experiences?

What would help you be more attuned to children when they are experiencing separation or loss? What capacities do you need to build?
